MOUNT PLEASANT

“Maurice O’Shea stands tall among Australia’s greatest winemakers of the twentieth century”

A note from James Halliday

THE OG - MAURICE O’SHEA

In the late 1920’s and 1930’s Maurice Oshea pioneered the blending techniques and innovations in oak that paved the way for future generations of Australian wine growers to create the wines that we enjoy today. Mount Pleasant is the name Maurice Oshea gave to the 16.3ha parcel of soil he bought in Pokolbin in 1921 and Mount Pleasant is now an iconic Australian wine brand whose vineyards still sit on this historic plot of land. The Maurice Oshea Shiraz is one of Australia’s greatest red wines and a fitting tribute to Australia’s most influential winemaker of the 20th Century. Today at Mount Pleasant we continue to work the same vines O’Shea provided us. The wines we make are reflective of site with minimal intervention, providing wines that are true to place and producer. They are brilliant in their youth and will age as well as any others in the world.

MOUNT PLEASANT ELIZABETH SEMILLON

The Elizabeth Semillon is created from grapes sourced from the Lovedale vineyard, maturing for five years before being released.

LOVEDALE SEMILLON

The Lovedale Vineyard was first planted in 1946, having originally been deemed incapable of growing vines, O'Shea saw the potential in the ancient sea-bed for growing exceptional wines. The inaugural vintage from Lovedale in 1950 proved to be a resounding success, earning critical acclaim for its excellence.

MOUNT HENRY

First made in 1944 by Maurice O'Shea, the Shiraz Pinot blend is uniquely an Australian blend. Revered by Hunter Winemakers for decades, this style has now become widely made across the Australian wine scene. The Mount Henry is the original wine which has inspired winemakers to take a new approach to blending, all beginning 80 years ago at Mount Pleasant.
